

Sweetest Love I Don't Go Summary

The poem "sweetest love I do not goe" is a wonderful poem composed by the poet John Donne. In this poem the poet tells about love. It means who loved someone so dearly if she left her, how he feels at that moment. The speaker who also loves someone so much. He tells about his beloved in wonderful ways. He says that his beloved is so beautiful and so cute that none can forget her. But when he went to his beloved to tell her about his love. But she his beloved just refused his love. Love is a way of life which teaches a man to live. A man's life is dull without love. A man can do anything if he loves someone. It can change the life style of a man. It makes the journey speedier than earlier. A person knows everything if he does love. It makes weak. As a sun it also shows the rays of light. It teaches us the art of love which we used to live happy.
